Montana Watercolor Society Information:

In 1983 a small group of watercolorists met in Missoula and asked each other why Montana did not have an organization just for watermedia artists. Out of that meeting came Montana Watercolor Society. Following are Members' activities:

Watermedia Exhibition - Annual National Juried Competition: The Society's premier competition is held annually, is open to members AND non-members, and has entries from nearly every state in the nation. It offers awards totaling thousands of dollars. Each year a nationally known juror/instructor is chosen. An Awards Banquet, Gallery Talk, Opening Reception and Workshop are held in conjunction with the Watermedia Exhibit. The Members' Annual Meeting is held following the opening of the Watermedia Exhibit each year. Signature membership is awarded after a member has entries juried in to 3 Watermedia exhibitions, and they need not be consecutive years. Signature members have the honor of adding the credentials "MTWS" after their signature.

Members-Only Open Show - This annual show accepts ALL entries (fitting the criteria) from active members only, and offers four judged awards. It gives members the chance to display their work and draws viewers from around the state. An awards ceremony and banquet are held in conjunction with this show, and a different juror/instructor juries and teaches a workshop each year.

Members receive the Montana Watercolor Society's Newsletter on a quarterly basis along with informational emails sent regarding art opportunities throughout the year, as well as a printed catalog for the Watermedia Exhibition. Members receive discounted entry fees to the two main shows and workshops. Information can also be found at www.montanawatercolorsociety.org and on the MTWS Facebook page. Local Area MTWS members' shows are held across the state at different locations and feature area members' work during the year.
